Bridges & Borders

Art Contest

A border can be an entry or a barrier. A bridge can connect or divide. It all depends on which side you stand.
What borders try to separate, bridges bring together.

Send us an original artwork about your experience with bridges and borders on our quest to find elements big and small that connect us, more than separate us.

Contest Rules & Guidelines

*Open to artists ages 6 to adult; winning artwork will be selected in the following categories: 1st-2nd grade, 3rd-5th grade, 6th-8th grade, 9th-12th grade, adult.

*Deadline: 5 p.m., January 15, 2021

*Entries may be hand-delivered to the Roswell Public Library, 301 N. Pennsylvania; or e-mailed to reference@roswell-nm.gov

*Entries will be judged by theme & originality. All work must be original and created by the entrant.

*Entries should not exceed 8.2"x11".

*Participants may only enter one artwork.

*Participants must sign the entry form granting the Roswell Big Read 2021 committee permission to use name and artwork (or details thereof). If artist is under 18 years of age, form must be signed by parent/guardian.

*Entries will be displayed at the Roswell Public Library during Roswell Big Read 2021.

*Prizes will be awarded to First, Second and Third place winners in all categories.
